Trail Description/ Key Points of Interest	Water surrounds you on this trek through the picturesque town of Port Carling situated at the "hub" of lakes Rosseau and Muskoka. This urban route offers many creative ways to enjoy a walk. Start your adventure with a swim at the beach in Hanna Park, then tour the Muskoka Lakes Museum on James Bartleman Island Park. If you time it just right you may see the R.M.S Segwun or Wenonah II making their way through the big locks. Stop and view the new Port Carling mural as "The Wall Looks Back". If shopping suits your fancy visit the many shops all along the way. Enjoy!
