Trail Description/ Key Points of Interest	The Hunter's Bay Trail is a walking, running, cycling trail and is part of the 52 kilometres of Trans Canada Trail that runs through Huntsville. The trail starts at the Centre Street Bridge beside KWH Pipe and runs along beside the river, under the railway trestle, along the east side of Hunter's Bay, through Avery Beach Park, and onwards to the Hwy 11 corridor. There is a 137 metre (450 ft) section of the trail that floats on Hunters Bay. The floating part of the trail is an ideal place to swim or fish from, or to tie up a boat and walk along the trail. There are small pull-offs along the trail to stop and enjoy the scenery including Orchard Park at the southern tip of the bay, which looks down the full length of the bay.
